

Drew E. MacIntyre

Vice Chair, TD Securities

Senior Vice President, TD Bank Group

As Vice Chair, Drew is responsible for senior client coverage, European Investment Banking as well as the firm's Global Energy franchise. He is a member of TD Securities' Management Committee, playing a key role on the firm's senior leadership team. Drew also leads Women in Leadership initiatives in Western Canada and Co-Chairs TD Securities' Sustainable Finance & Corporate Transitions Group.

Before joining TD Securities in 2000 via TD's purchase of Newcrest Capital, Drew was Head of Energy at BMO Capital Markets. He has also practiced securities law in Toronto, New York and Calgary.

He holds a Bachelor of Commerce (Gold Medalist) from University of Manitoba, a Master of Business Administration (Gold Medalist) from Schulich School of Business, a Bachelor of Law (Gold Medalist) from Osgoode Hall Law School and a Master of Laws from Harvard Law School. Drew also completed executive education courses from Harvard Kennedy School of Government in Environmental Economics and Policy.

Drew serves on the Dean's Advisory Board at Harvard Law School and has endowed the MacIntyre Environmental Law Fund, which supports HLS' Energy and Environmental Law program's research regarding economic development and the environment.

He currently serves on the Advisory Board of Longbow Capital, an energy private equity fund, and is a board observer for ArcTern Ventures, one of North America's largest Cleantech venture capital funds. Since 2001, he has been the proprietor of Lake Breeze Vineyards and MacIntyre Estate Winery, award winning Okanagan Valley (British Columbia) boutique wineries.